THE WHISKY TRADE.

From the editorial columns of the New York Tribune we take the following, entitled "Size of the Temperance question." It does no good for men to sneer at the agitation in regard to the liquor traffic. The subject is too important to be laughed down. Aside from the law-defying spirit which it has elicited, aside from all its moral and religious aspects, the question considered merely as one of dollars and cents, in its effect upon the national prosperity and wealth, is one of the most important that can be named.

Directly and indirectly this country spends in the liquor traffic every year a sum exceeding half the national debt. The cost of that traffic to the country, direct and indirect, is greater than the profits of all its capital not invested in real estate. It costs every year more than our whole civil service, our army, our navy, our Congress, including the River and Harbor and the Pension bills, our wasteful local governments, and national, State, county and local debts, besides all the schools in the country. In fact, this nation pays more for liquor than for every function of every kind of government. How is a question of that size to be put aside with a sneer?

The consumption of beer and ale last year was about 15,000,000 barrels; cost to consumers, about $480,000,000. The cheapest kind of liquor used, ordinary whisky, is rarely sold at five cents, and averages at least seven cents a drink; at a half a gill to the horn, this makes $4.48 per gallon. The consumption last year was about 70,000,000 gallons; cost to consumers about $312,000,000. Adding wines there is certainly spent for drink more than $800,000,000, and the entire sum raised by taxes of all kinds, national, State, county, city and school district, is stated on authority of the Census Bureau to be not more than about $700,000,000. But the cost of the liquor drunk is not by any means the whole cost of the liquor traffic—84 per cent, of all the crime and criminal expenses in Massachusetts comes directly from the abuse of liquor.

There are at least one in twenty of the able bodied men in this country who are rendered idle by their habits or incapacitated for work, and these persons, at the ordinary wages of workmen, would earn, if industrious and fairly employed, over $200,000,000 yearly. The proportion of persons in hospitals, who reach them because of excess in drink, is very large, but cannot be definitely ascertained. A traffic that costs in actual payment and in loss of productive labor more than half the national debt, is not to be ignored by the economist. These comparisons do not constitute reasons for doing any unjust or unwise thing. What ought to be done about the liquor traffic is not to be decided hastily, or without due regard for the rights of all classes of citizens.

But the time has gone by in this country when a serious discussion of a question that involves such a vast expense to the nation can be prevented by bullying, intolerance, insolence or ridicule. This very practical people, having begun to think about the matter in earnest, perceive that it is much too important to be put aside at the dictation of saloon-keepers. It is certain that the entire savings of the people and all additions to their wealth are not twice as much as the sum expended for liquor. If any just and reasonable proposition can be made that will add one-half to the savings and prosperity of the nation, it will not be put down by a sneer, nor defeated by a law-breaking mob.

THE NEXT LEGISLATURE.

The next Legislature will stand as follows:
Senate: Republicans—Churchill, C. Kiser; Esmeralda, J. B. Gallagher; Eureka, W. W. Hobart and M. D. Foley; Ormsby, J. D. Hammond and H. G. Parker; Storey, J. Minor Taylor; Washoe, P. N. Marker. Total, 8. Democrats—Douglas, H. F. Danbury; Elko, E. B. Tolley and J. H. Dennis; Humboldt, Chas. McConnell; Lander, Jno. Smyth; Lincoln, H. Henderson; Lyon, W. J. Westerfield; Nye, J. T. Williams; Storey, J. A. Brumsey and L. T. Fox; Washoe, Jerry Schooling; White Pine, Tom Rockhill. Total, 12. This gives the Democrats a majority of 4.

Assembly: Republicans—Douglas, A. C. Pratt; Esmeralda, R. T. Morris and T. H. Wells; Eureka, W. L. Marsden and J. W. Smith; Humboldt, D. Melerkey; Lander, G. W. Dale; Lyon, W. Crowninshield and W. C. Dovey; Ormsby, Frank Boskowitz, Alfred Helm and D. H. Brown; Storey, G. F. Hill, Albert Hires, W. M. M. Johnson, Alex. Tait, W. D. Grey, G. J. Perkins, Anthony Fox, Chas. Harper, B. Garland, C. H. Galusha; Washoe, W. E. Price, C. S. Varian and H. L. Fish. Total 25. Democrats—Churchill, —; Elko, E. P. Hardesty, M. B. Wisker, Jas. McBurney; Elko, H. J. Muldoon; Humboldt, C. H. E. Hardesty, Geo. Kenting; Lander, E. A. Allen and H. Schneidlein; Lincoln, M. D. Howell, J. Rippe; Nye, T. J. Bell and F. G. McDonald; White Pine, W. C. Love and James Fulton. Total 15, giving the Republicans 10 majority. On a joint ballot the Republicans will have a majority of six.

THE RETURNS.

The following are the majorities the different candidates received at the election held last Tuesday. The full returns will change these figures somewhat, but they are substantially correct: Adams, 1,216; Cassidy, 1,106; Laughton, 337; Leonard, 912; Bicknell, 786; Dormer, 700; Hallock, 632; Tufts, 816; Davenport, 275; Preble, 719; Young, 726; Harlow, 1,092. The above returns show that the State is clearly Republican by a majority of between 700 and 800.

The Esmeralda Herald places Hon. T. H. Wells in nomination for speaker of the House. We understand that Hon. C. S. Varian of Washoe, W. C. Dovey of Lyon, and Albert Hires of Storey will also enter the fight. For the other positions there are about 2,000 applicants already signified a desire to occupy clerical positions.

TODAY'S NEWS

EASTERN DISPATCHES.

Compelling an old Miser to Pringle—A Dirty Octogenarian.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 13.

For twenty years Edward Holroyd has lived in what was once a beautiful residence on East Walnut Hills. In 1839 he was a partner of John Shillito. A quarter of a century ago came the first difference between man and wife. With fast accumulating wealth he acquired greed for more, and in an effort to obtain possession of his wife's property he brought on a quarrel. She still lives only a short distance from her former home, but her husband cut off all communication with the outer world. Once a day from that time on until now a man came with a supply of provisions and the mail, depositing them inside the door, finding there at the same time money for the supplies of the day. He never saw his patron. Four times in each year he was visited by his agent, whom he would meet outside the dwelling, and there receiving briefly his report, would issue necessary orders and then retire to his residence. Soured by age, the man became a hypochondriac. Among the ignorant stories were current that his house teemed with wealth. Friday night enterprising burglars forced a shutter, and going up stairs broke open the door of his sleeping room and dragged the old man from his bed. There were four intruders, three masked; the fourth, a large, heavy man, standing back and giving orders. Demands for money brought no reply, as the victim was speechless from fright. Blows were next resorted to, and finally they dragged him through the house, believing that when he reached the apartment where was hidden his treasure he would indicate it by pantomime, if he could not speak. From one place he produced a pocket-book containing $5. Dragging him on, they stopped in one of the lower rooms. Resolved on fresh torture, the large man, placing his heavy heel on one of the Holroyd's bare feet, gave a twist that wrenched the large toe nail from its place. Then the men were told to go to a closet facing them and look in a wooden box that was on a shelf. In this receptacle under many rags, they found five $1,000 Government bonds which had lain there for 20 years, the interest as yet untouched, worth now over $130,000 and $200 in money. Having taken all he hoped they would now go away; but he was disappointed. Procuring newspapers they lighted them and singed his body for further extortion, but without avail. Giving him a final beating, they started on a ransacking tour and made a good search. Saturday afternoon a neighbor saw a window opened in the old man's house. This was so unusual that an investigation was made. A lieutenant of police visited the place, forced open a window and made his way to his room. Desolation was everywhere. Old rags, dirt and all kinds of filth were in every room. Until the night previous no living man save the burglars had been there for 25 years. On an old-fashioned four-posted bed lay the miser with a greasy quilt drawn up to his chin. Drawing off the cover to examine his injuries, one of the dirtiest shirts ever worn by mortal man was exposed. Originally white, it was now a cobweb gray with dirt, and looked indeed as if soaked in cold gravy. Its thickness with grease made it cling to his body as if molded on. Profoundly he was refused, and he was left to his memories and solitude. Holroyd is about 80 years old, and is worth from $100,000 to $150,000. He is liable to die from the injuries received.

Harry George Speaks.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.

Henry George delivered a lecture to-night under the auspices of the Federal Labor Union. During the course of his remarks George called attention to the alarming growth in strength of railroad corporations, and recommended as the only practicable check threats of absorption of their property by the Government. In the results of the recent elections George saw a promise of a revolution in popular feeling which would result in bringing forward great industrial and economic principles. Invitations to be present had been extended to the President and Cabinet, but none of them attended.

England and Egypt.

LONDON, Nov. 13.

Stafford Northcote will support the proposed vote of censure on the conduct of the Government in the disposition of Arabi Pasha. Lord Granville communicated to the French Government a note of Cherif Pasha announcing the abolition of European control on the ground that the control forms no part of the guarantees given the creditors of Egypt, and that the control is calculated to diminish the authority of the Khedive and offend the susceptibilities of native Egyptians, and has led to gross administrative abuses.

The Comet at Sea.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.

The captain of the brig Letitia, arrived to-day from Mirazone, reports that on Sept. 21st, when near St. Marc, Hayti, a large comet of great brilliancy was seen bearing east by south, and visible some time after the sun rose. The captain says the comet has been visible in Hayti, sometimes very large and brilliant. As he came northward it diminished in size and brightness and appeared moving in a more southerly direction. It was seen as late as 10 A. M. in the day at Hayti and appeared much larger than on his approach to New York. Many of the people in Hayti think their last days have come. After the comet last year they had small pox and lost upwards of 60,000 lives throughout the dominion. They always look upon a comet as a bad omen and are at a loss to know what trouble this will bring them.

The Jeannette Inquiry.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.
Melville's testimony before the Jeannette Board this morning was a continuation of the account of the trip after leaving the vessel, and included an account of the separation on the last night they were together. His boat was a faster sailer than the others, but he had orders to keep astern of De Long's boat. On this occasion, however, he had in running with storm and sea got ahead. He saw De Long making signals to them to stop and he attempted to do so, lowering the sails of the boat. This, however, caused waves to dash in. De Long made another gesture which he understood to mean to go on and not risk swamping the boat by stopping. He therefore hoisted the sails and went on, and soon passed out of sight of the other boats, never seeing any of their occupants again until he found DeLong's party dead on the Lena delta; and after sailing for some time out of sight of the others he remarked to Danenhower, who sat beside him, that he thought they ought to have to wait for the others to come up. Danenhower replied: "Yes, Melville. She ought to have been here to before this." They made a drag and after much trouble hove to and drifted until the storm ended next day, when they again made sail for the coast. This is the first statement from any person that Danenhower thought they ought to have stopped the boat soon after the separation occurred.

Soldiers' Pensions.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.

Pension Commissioner Durely in preparing the tables for his annual report, has made the discovery that there are 100,000 ex-soldiers yet living in the United States who have never applied for pensions. These men are getting along in years, and disorders contracted in the service are manifesting themselves in pensionable disabilities. The prevalent idea that the pension rolls should be decreasing at this time he thinks erroneous. They are, on the contrary, likely to increase for some years. The annual amount for current payments is now about $55,000,000, exclusive of arrears. The Commissioner has information that petitions are now in circulation praying Congress to pass an act of pension bill. Applicants whose claims have been filed for the first time within the last two years are not entitled, under existing laws, to arrears. The proposition is to have all limits and restrictions removed so that a pensioner whose claim has been established, or who shall hereafter make a claim and prove it, shall be entitled to back pension. This is one of the problems with which the next Democratic Congress will have to wrestle. It may upset the numerous plans now being made for a reduction of taxation, from which so much is hoped in aid of the Democratic cause.

Railroad Matters.

FORT SMITH, Ark., Nov. 12.

A branch of the St. Louis and San Francisco railroad is completed to Van Buren, five miles from Fort Smith, and will be open for business Tuesday.

The Eagle Pass branch of the Sunset railroad was finished to Eagle Pass on the Rio Grande yesterday. A large depot will be erected there immediately.

Depositions are being taken here in the suit of the Denver & New Orleans railway against the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe, to compel the latter company to make and maintain close business relations with the former against its will.

E. W. Warfield, Supt. of the Railway Mail Service, left here to-day for San Francisco, where he will meet other gentlemen connected with the post office, and examine into the needs of the mail service on the Pacific coast and perfect arrangements for a better service between the Pacific and Atlantic seaboard. Mr. Warfield will go out by the Southern road and investigate postal matters along the line.

The Next Congress.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.

The Times Washington correspondent, commenting on the election, says: More than half the faces will be new ones. Many prominent Republicans now in Congress will not be there, and there will be another speaker. There will be only one old face in the California delegation—that of Boocarsen, whose war record as set forth at length by himself in the Congressional Directory is much more conspicuous than his services on the floor of the House. Page's majority of 3,000 melts away, and the candidate he defeated in 1890 is one of the new members at large Colorado will send back the impulsive, plain-spoken but popular Judge Bedford, who seems to have a strong hold upon his constituents whom he delights to serve. From Texas all will be Democrats except the famous reconstructed Ochiltree. The State will gain by being represented by the inimitable Ochiltree, who ran on a river and harbor platform, and whose imagination will have no equal on the floor of the House.

Death from Overwork.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.

The Tribune's letter has the following paragraph: "The death of Simon-ton was largely due to overwork. He took few vacations, and those were consumed in business enterprises. He came back this year to his ranch in Napa County intending in the pure air and under the generous sun of California to regain his lost strength; but he was too late. His death, whatever learned name doctors give to its cause, was the result of the American passion for work at high pressure."

Horses Bound West.

OMAHA, Nov. 12.

O. A. Hickok passed through Omaha to-day for San Francisco with St. Julien and Overman, and two other horses belonging to Mr. Mackey, and also seven horses for breeding purposes. He will rest one day at Cheyenne.

Rum Did It.

LAWRENCE, Mass., Nov. 12.

Thomas Kennedy was fatally stabbed by Michael Doucey during a quarrel growing out of the refusal of Kennedy and two others to pay for liquor which they had ordered.

The Land League.

BUFFALO, Nov. 13.

At a general meeting of the Land League branches to-day, a resolution was adopted endorsing the Irish Land League as now constituted, together with its leaders, principles and plans.

FOREIGN TELEGRAPH.

An Assassin Sentenced.

DUBLIN, Nov. 13.

Corrigan, charged with attempting to assassinate Justice Lawson, identified as Patrick Delaney, is sentenced to nine years penal servitude for highway robbery and attempting to shoot the policeman who captured him.

LONDON, Nov. 13.

The Daily News says: The attempt to connect the skulking ruffian who attacked Justice Lawson with the imprisonment of Mr. Gray is absurd. Judges are not popular with the class to which Delaney belongs, and it may turn out that he was the emissary of a secret society; but it is very probable that he is merely a habitual criminal with a general dislike of judges.

Killed With a Club.

ALEXANDRIA, Nov. 13.

The body of a Russian subject was to-day found lying in the street where he had been murdered. The body lay near the arsenal. It is believed the culprit was a native watchman, who has been arrested. In his possession was found a blood-covered bludgeon which had a piece of hair and brains of the victim upon it. The native denies his guilt, and his explanation of the presence of the weapon is disbelieved.

WESTERN TELEGRAMS.

Sensible Democrats.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 13.

A meeting was held here to-night by the Democratic State and County Central Committees and candidates elect, for the purpose of considering the question of holding at an early day a grand ratification torch-light procession, etc., in honor of the recent signal victories. After a long discussion, the meeting finally determined that such proposed public demonstration is not advisable, and concluded to abandon it.

The Cassiar Mines.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 13.

The population of the mining region of Cassiar has been smaller this year than usual, but the output per man has been much better. During the past season there have been about 330 men employed in the mines, the amount taken out ranging from $150,000 to $175,000. There were left in the mines about 75 white men and 50 Chinamen, who would work at intervals during the winter. The outlook for the next year is fully equal to that of the present year, and may turn out somewhat better.

—District Attorney Corkhill says he does not believe the report that Captain Howgate is in New Orleans, nor does he believe he will surrender himself when his case is called for trial.

—A proposal is being brought forward to establish at Oxford and Cambridge a Roman Catholic College for the purpose of preparing students who desire to enter the University.

JOTTINGS.

Skates for sale at Allen's.

Sage hens are reported as very plentiful in the hills north of town.

A. C. Blakely has a dwelling-house and lot for sale cheap. See 50 cent column.

A large flock of wild geese set on the pond above the dam Saturday for several hours.

Yesterday was a very quiet Sunday. Everybody seemed to stay at home or go to church.

A long cattle train went west last night. Beef is not so scarce, it seems, though very high.

Considerable quantities of railroad iron are going east. Ten car-loads passed here yesterday.

The Reno Literary Society will meet this evening at the house of Mr. Fredrick, at 8 o'clock sharp.

Truckees have been struck by a cold wave. The thermometer yesterday morning was six degrees below zero.

A large buck in front of Manning & Berry's attracted considerable attention this morning. The animal was dead.

The District Court met this morning, but no important business was transacted. Jurors were excused until the 27th inst.

The sudden snap of cold weather has driven the deer out of the mountains, and they are now to be found in considerable numbers in the hills along the V. & T.

The Board of County Commissioners are canvassing the vote of this county to-day. The GAZETTE will publish a table of the vote as officially canvassed to-morrow.

High-ball poker is the favorite thing now. It is a percentage game, and if the players stick to it long enough the dealer will have all the money around the table. It is only a question of time.

The railroad tracks yesterday were pretty well occupied. In fact, there was a blockade, so that it was difficult for pedestrians to make a crossing on Sierra street unless they walked around or crawled under the cars.

A man went to steamboat a week ago so crippled up with inflammatory rheumatism that he had to be carried into the house, so helpless was he. The same man now pursues the bounding deer with the agility of a greyhound, so to speak.

There is one man who trembles at the prospect of the country getting into the hands of Democrats. Moeller is postmaster at Steamboat, and is in great fear of being hoisted. It would break his heart to lose the office, which, with salary and perquisites is worth seven dollars and a half a year.

Wm. Goeggel went below Saturday night to lay in a new stock of watches, jewelry, etc., for the holidays. He will have a superior exhibition of all things in his line, and his well-known taste in such matters is a guarantee that all articles will be first-class. Call at his elegant store on Virginia street and see the beautiful display he makes.

L. Freilick has new attractions, new goods and new designs in fine jewelry at his store on Commercial Row. He has just received a large stock of watches, clocks, silver ware, and other articles especially adapted to the holiday trade, to which he invites attention. Call and see him, particularly if your watch is out of order and needs tuning up. He makes this a specialty.

PERSONALS.

Fred Trebilcock arrived here Saturday night from Butte City, Montana.

M. J. Dillman returned from Sacramento this morning.

N. L. Breed, wife and daughter, came in from Janesville on Saturday evening's train.

J. P. Bainbridge, of the firm of Knowles & Bainbridge, came up from the Bay this morning.

L. G. Clark of Duck Flat is in town. He is feeding 1,000 head of cattle in Surprise valley.

George Huscroft left Reno yesterday for Lost river, Oregon to drive down a thousand head of beef cattle.

J. H. Marker and Nat Holmes left this morning for the Eagle lake tunnel, after a week's visit in this vicinity.

J. Duke Murray, agent for the Milton Nobles Company, is here. His company will appear on Tuesday, Nov. 28th.

Lassen Advocate: Miss Josie Barnes of Reno will teach piano music in this place during the winter. She is spoken of as being an adept in this particular.

T. M. Luther of Bodie—everybody in Mono county knows Tom—went west last night. He is a skillful assayer and metallurgist, and a go-ahead citizen, besides being a gentleman and a bully old man generally. He is on a trip to the southern country, and if he does not return Bodie will lose one of her best men.

Lassen Items.

Lassen county has gone Democratic. The Wood Bros. started Tuesday with a band of cattle for Reno. The roads in every direction are in very bad condition, occasioned by the late storm.

A drove of 1,000 beef cattle belonging to the West Bros. passed through town yesterday en route to Marysville.

N. Lute has a colt three months old that weighs 750 pounds.

F. H. Merrill has forbidden the cutting or using of any more timber from Government land. Information has been received here of the death of H. Brince, well known in this county. Mr. Brince was here a couple of years ago in the photograph business, and afterwards removed to Lakeview, Oregon, where he remained until about a year ago, when he removed to Australia. He died in Dunedin, New Zealand, on the 16th of September, and was buried by the Odd Fellows and Masons, of which orders he was a respected member.

The Reno and Susanville stage changed time last Monday. It now arrives at 3 P. M. each day, and departs at 7 A. M., making the entire trip by daylight. The change proposed and published a couple of weeks ago in the Advocate, was tried, but owing to the very bad condition of the roads it was found that the connections could not be made. Stages will run during the winter on the schedule above given.

Couldn't stand Luck. Jim Russell was sitting musing on a stump last Saturday a mile or so from Steamboat Springs, and while tossing a straggling idea around in his head he happened to raise his eyes, and was electrified at what he saw. Four big bucks, bigger than Barum's new elephant and higher than Bunker Hill monument, stood staring at him not 50 feet off. He raised his Winchester and blazed away, killing three out of the four. His phenomenal success nearly demented him, and when found by friends he was hugging the carcasses in a delirium of joy. A Virginia butcher gave him $38 for his game.

Easy Deer Hunting. The stage messenger who runs on the N. & O. for J. W. Meylert, killed a deer Saturday just beyond Rock Springs. A passenger on the train saw seven or eight fine bucks and does standing on a bluff about 200 yards west of the track watching the train. The locomotive was stopped when the messenger jumped off and shot a nice fat doe. The rest of the band stood watching the wounded animal for several minutes after the shot was fired. The train men say they see deer nearly every trip they make. Some of Reno's deer hunters are going out for a hunt in a day or two.

Bold Attempt At Robbery. As Walter Fullmer was crossing the V. & T. bridge Saturday evening two men demanded him to halt. As Walter had nothing to defend himself with he skipped out at a lively gait chased by one of the would-be highwaymen to a point just below the Depot Hotel. Walter was informed by his pursuer that unless he stopped he would shoot, but Fullmer was too busy getting away to heed the demand.

Accident at the Asylum. Yesterday when Henry Johnson, the night watchman at the Insane Asylum, was winding up the weight which runs the patent gas machine at that institution, the racket wheel broke, letting the 1,200 pound weight fall to the ground, a distance of about 20 feet. Johnson had a very narrow escape from being caught under the falling weight. Considerable damage was done to the gas works, but it will soon be repaired.

Crucial to Cattle. A peep into a cattle car will satisfy anyone that the poor animals have a hard row to hoe while being transported from pasture to the shambles. The cars are generally overcrowded, and they sometimes kick and gore each other frightfully, and small animals are frequently stamped to death by the larger ones. Some better method of transportation ought to be employed.

Wintering Cattle. James Miller has purchased all the hay belonging to Jones & Co., Ambrose Hazelton, Ike Weston, Pat Conley and Evans Bros. of Long Valley, in all 1,100 tons. With this amount, together with 700 tons of his own raising, he calculates to feed 900 head of stock the coming winter. He has contracted to fatten 150 head for the Plumas Eureka mine.

Died at the Hospital. Frank Bettinger died at the County Hospital yesterday of typhoid pneumonia, after a short illness. He was a worthy young man, and his death will be lamented by his friends and relatives, who live in Washington Territory, where he was born.

How to Comb Your Hair. It is the fashion now for ladies to comb their hair straight back from the forehead without wearing any "bangs" or frizzes. Is it a little hard for those who are wearing their hair short to be in fashion.

Tough Boar Meat.
A defeated candidate revenged himself on a few friends who did not work so hard for him on election day as they should have done. He had an old boar killed and skinned, and the meat doctored up by an artistic butcher. This he distributed among his neglectful friends, stating that it was part of a bear he had shot. It was tougher than gutta percha and stronger than Limburger cheese.

He Wanted His Money.
Felix Bonnett has obtained judgment in the U. S. Circuit Court before Judge Sawyer against the Humbest brothers, for $1,850, services as keeper and watchman at a quicksilver mine near Steamboat Springs, which property he has been guarding for three years, during which time he has "worked for nothing and found himself." He sued for $2,500.

Shipping Wheat to Europe.
H. C. Emmons of Lovelocks has shipped 500 tons of wheat raised on the Big Meadows to Europe, and will ship 50 tons more this week. It is transported by rail to Port Costa, Cal., and there loaded on vessels which sail direct to Europe. The shipment of wheat from Lovelocks to foreign ports gives the Paradise farmers a chance to dispose of their surplus grain.

Let the Good Work go on.
George A. King, Secretary of the N. & O. road, has put in a good street crossing from the depot to his company's office—a much needed improvement. The residents of the northeastern part of town who have been obliged to swim home in former winters should feel under obligations to Mr. King.

Steamboat Springs.
C. F. Moeller makes his hotel a pleasant place for all who enter it. He is kind and obliging, and does all he can to make his guests happy. The table he sets is better than anybody else can get up, and a bath or a good swim in the big tank will take the kinks out of a cripple.

Heavy Damages.
In the case of Brown vs. Evans, in the United States Circuit Court at Carson, Saturday, the jury returned a verdict for $8,150.87 in favor of Brown.
